BREAKOUT ONE

Data protection: GDPR & UK

GDPR will enter into force in May 2018 and the efforts to adapt the companies' procedures will represent a transnational challenge. Individuals, companies and public authorities will face many changes in the way data will be hosted, treated and protected. Most of all, GDPR will also represent an economic arm wrestling among European countries and the other countries around the world. Bearing in mind that UK will follow most of GDPR rules, this panel will foster some of the issues related to the interconnection between EU and UK.

Practical issues arising in global compliance

This interactive session will discuss hot topics in compliance from a multi-national perspective and consider how to address current issues, ensuring that you have a robust compliance framework in place. What is the impact of mandatory internal compliance programs such as SAPIN II, recently introduced in France? How do you approach conflict of laws and deal with legislation which has extraterritorial effect. What are the risks/advantages arising from incentivising whistleblowing? How do you monitor and control the use of social media and applications such as Snapchat and WhatsApp by your employees? Our expert panellists will be engaging with the audience to discuss the many challenges faced by in-house counsel in an increasingly complex compliance space and providing insight into the expectations of regulators.

BREAKOUT ONE

Art law – Women on top (or 'Shaking up the codes')

The art market is an exciting field of interest for business women and lawyers. For centuries, the art world has been largely dominated by men, as artists, dealers or collectors, bar some famous exceptions such as Angelica Kauffman and Mary Moser in the UK, or Elisabeth Vigée-Lebrun and Camille Claudel in France, to name but a few. Today, the situation has notably improved, with more and more women involved in a changing art market. This panel will focus on a selection of woman's art oriented business initiatives, shaping up today's art market.

The open-mindedness of art is an opportunity for women to shake-up the codes.

Unauthorised accommodation agents

It has been brought to our attention that there are multiple companies contacting past attendees, claiming to represent the IBA, offering 'assistance' with registration and hotel bookings.

They are operating by cold-calling and spamming companies whose names have appeared on previous List of Participants, Programmes and Sponsorship recognition. The only Accommodation Agent the IBA works with is Judy Lane ICS. Judy Lane ICS do not contact delegates on behalf of the IBA without delegates making initial contact. Please ignore any communication that does not come directly from the IBA or Judy Lane ICS.

No other cards are accepted.

PLEASE ENSURE THAT YOUR NAME AND 'CON857LONDON' APPEAR ON ANY TRANSFER OR DRAFT.

No deductions or withholdings

All fees payable to us by you in accordance with the terms contained in this 'Information' section shall be paid free and clear of all deductions or withholdings whatsoever.

If any deductions or withholdings are required by law to be made from any fees payable to us by you under the terms contained in this 'Information' section you shall pay such sum as will, after the deduction or withholding has been made, leave us with the same amount as we would have been entitled to receive in the absence of any such requirement to make a deduction or withholding.

If we obtain the benefit of any tax credit or other relief by reference to any such deductions or withholdings, then we shall repay to you such amount as, after such repayment has been made, will leave us in no worse position than we would have been had no such deductions or withholdings been required.

Conference sell-outs

The IBA places its conference in venues of a suitable size for the event; however there are times when our conferences may sell out. Should this happen, prospective delegates will be informed and a waiting list will operate. The waiting list will function on a 'first come, first served' basis, subject to receiving registered delegate cancellations. The IBA will not be liable for any travel or accommodation expenses incurred by an individual who travels to the conference without a confirmed place at the event.

Provided you have cancelled your registration to attend an IBA conference in accordance with the terms of the 'cancellation of registration' clause included in the 'Information' section of the relevant conference programme, you must then confirm to us in writing at the IBA office as soon as possible but in no event later than one year (12 calendar months) from the date of any such conference all necessary details to enable any reimbursement owed to you to be paid. We regret that no refunds will be made after the date that is one year (12 calendar months) after the date of the relevant conference.

Travel arrangements and visas

Participants are responsible for making their own travel arrangements. It is recommended that you check your visa requirements with your local embassy or consulate. We are unable to dispatch visa invitation letters to support your visa application prior to receipt of your registration form and full payment of registration fees.

Please apply for your visa in good time.

Disabled access

The Royal Horseguards Hotel / One Whitehall Place is wheelchair accessible. Please notify us if you require special assistance.

The organisers may at any time, with or without giving notice, in their absolute discretion and without giving any reason, cancel or postpone the conference, change its venue or any of the other published particulars, or withdraw any invitation to attend. In any case, neither the organisers nor any of their officers, employees, agents, members or representatives shall be liable for any loss, liability, damage or expense suffered or incurred by any person, nor will they return any money paid to them in connection with the conference unless they are satisfied not only that the money in question remains under their control but also that the person who paid it has been unfairly prejudiced (as to which, decision shall be in their sole and unfettered discretion and, when announced, final and conclusive).

International Bar Association

the global voice of the legal profession

The International Bar Association (IBA), established in 1947, is the world's leading organisation of international legal practitioners, bar associations, law firms and law societies.

The IBA influences the development of international law reform and shapes the future of the legal profession throughout the world. It has a membership of more than 80,000 individual lawyers and more than 190 bar associations and law societies spanning over 170 countries.

Inspired by the vision of the United Nations, the IBA was founded in the same spirit, just before the Universal Declaration of Human Rights was proclaimed in 1948.

The IBA covers all practice areas and professional interests, providing members with access to leading experts and up-to-date information, enabling them to better represent their clients' interests.

Through its various committees, fora and task forces, the IBA facilitates the exchange of information and views among its members as to laws, practices and professional responsibilities relating to the practice of law around the globe.

Women Lawyers' Interest Group

The Women Lawyers' Interest Group of the International Bar Association offers a forum for women members from Australia to Zambia to discuss topics of global significance to women practitioners. The Group was introduced as an IBA constituent in 1996 by Dianna Kempe Q.C. in order to allow efficient global networking of women lawyers.

Liaison and discussions take place at IBA conferences, at IBA World Women Lawyers' Conferences, by newsletter or through contact with fellow members listed in the Group's Directory. Apart from fostering women lawyers' business potentials, the Group also aims to provide informal advice and assistance in areas of interest. Moreover, many of the countries in the IBA have a WIG Country Representative who organizes programmes and events according to the local needs of each country.

All IBA members, both male and female, are encouraged to participate in the Women Lawyers' Interest Group's activities.
